mmmpanadas® is the creation of husband and wife powerhouse Cody and Kristen Fields. Shortly after graduating from UT Austin, Cody fell in love with empanadas while working in Costa Rica. He met Kristen on a trip back to Austin in 2006 and fell in love with her, too. Together, they began making a variety of empanadas for local bars and coffee shops. Next thing they knew, they were married and slinging gourmet empanadas out of a big red food truck. Thirteen years, two kids, and over a million empanadas sold later, mmmpanadas has grown beyond the truck and is now rolling into grocers' frozen aisles across the country.

Take a bite and find out what the mmm is all about!
